

The Obituary

JUANITA ELIZABETH JOHNSON DOWS "NITA", was born to William L. Johnson, Sr. and Julia M. Wheeler Johnson, on September 18, 1933, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, where she made her permanent home. She departed this life on Sunday, June 24, 2001, in the Atlantic City Medical Center.

Mrs. Dows attended the Atlantic City public schools and was a graduate of Atlantic City Vocational School. She was employed as a licensed practical nurse and as a home service aide for Atlantic County. She was a member of Greater Holy Trinity Baptist Church, here in Atlantic City.

Predeceased by her husband, Richard Dows, and her parents, Evangelist Julia Johnson and William Johnson, Sr., she is survived by: her daughter, Alexandria Dows; four grandchildren, Kenisa, Tasshi, Billy and Quaijuan, all of Atlantic City; one sister, Ruth McQueen of Pleasantville; three brothers, William Johnson of Bronx, New York, John Johnson of Los Angeles, California and Reverend Kenneth A. Johnson of Pleasantville; and a host of cousins and friends.

Lovingly submitted,

The Family
