PenderROCK 2003 ReConnect

The following is an excerpt from the June 24, 2003 PenderROCK email newsletter:

Because we did not get together as a body in 2003, the board of directors has suggested that we create local events in major PenderROCK cities during the summer and fall timeframe. This will give us some 'face time' with each other -- and possibly encourage local people to attend the reunions starting next year.

RULES: Re-Connects will be self-funding events. No PenderROCK Treasury funds will be used. The planner of each event will decide what it is to be.

The idea is for it not to require a great deal of time on the part of the planner, nor a great deal of money for the attendees.

We suggest that it be as simple as a potluck at someone's home or a park. Or meeting for self-paid dinner at a local restaurant.

The PenderROCK Secretary will publish the event on behalf of the planner via email. Mailing labels can also be provided.

New Jersey is first! Sunday Sept 21, 2003

A PenderROCK ReConnect will be hosted by Bertha Williams – host of PenderROCK 2004 and pastor of St. Thomas A.M.E. Church in Jackson, NJ.

In conjunction with the church's

Family & Friends Day

PenderROCK people are especially invited to attend services at 11:00 AM

and stay for dinner.

The church is having a pig roast!

It's free! You get to eat pork!
You get to sit together and look cute!
. . . What could be better??
