Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges with deepest gratitude the many expressions of kindness extended to them during their sad hours. Your compassion has brought a great measure of peace. We pray God's richest blessings and mercy on all who share our sorrow. We thank you sincerely whatever the part. Also, we would like to extend a heart-felt thank you to the Genesis Church Family for your help and support during this time.

Our Mother's Hands

Hands that once were young and tender,
Are now with God in sweet surrender.
Hands that held a sleeping child upon their chest,
Whose work began while others rest.
Hands that led,
Hands that fed.
Hands that sometimes in midnight hours,
Stroke with God's own healing power.
Hands that reached beyond their own,
To help a neighbor left alone.
Hands that unfolded to God in prayer,
Through faith knowing that "He" is there.
Hands slowed by time and task,
Still willing hands when they were asked.
Hands that have earned the right to cease,
And rest in God's own loving peace.
Those were, "Our Mother's Hands."

The Obituary

Life's Journey Begins . . .

Sylvia Christine Holmes Carr was born on November 18, 1950 to the Reverend Arthur C. Holmes and Emily G. Holmes. She married her high school sweetheart, Tyson Carr Jr., and they enjoyed forty-six wonderful years together. This union was blessed with three daughters and a son.

She received her formal education at C. F. Pope High School in Burgaw, NC, Greensboro Technical Community College and Rutledge Business College in Greensboro, NC.

Her Christian Journey . . .

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined Pike Creek A.M.E. Church, Burgaw, NC. When she relocated to Greensboro, she continued her Christian discipleship at United Institutional Baptist Church and Manasseh Baptist Church. She was an active participant in the Women's Ministry, sang in the MBC Mass choir, and was the leader of the November/December Birthday Group.

Her life was a genuine example of the love of Christ. She had a special gift of recognizing the needs of others, and responding by making personal sacrifices. When she was met with situations that exceeded her resources she would evoke the support of others to ensure the needs were met.

*Following Christ's teachings that we "love one another", she devoted special effort to Maintaining "ties" with all members of the family, no matter how distant...Promoting "education" to our youth and rewarding them for their progress...And caring for our senior citizens through many personal visits and her faithful "telephone ministry". Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God...Matthew 5:8

Earthly Journey Ends . . .

Sylvia Christine Holmes Carr entered into eternal rest on Friday, November 14, 2014 at her home surrounded by her loving family.

To Cherish Her Memory . . .

She leaves to celebrate her life: her beloved husband, Tyson Carr Jr., three daughters, all residing in North Carolina, Sylvania Curtis (Louis) of Hope Mills, Gloria Carr of Greensboro, Cloreese Carr of Greensboro; and one son Tyson L. Carr of Greensboro; her devoted mother, Emily H. Holmes of Wilmington, NC; four sisters, all residing in North Carolina: Louvenia Haynes (Clyde) of Castle Hayne, Nina Johnson (Donnie) of Rocky Point, Arthenia Telfair (Reginald) of Greensboro, and Amy Smith (Thomas) of Wallace; father-in-law, Tison Carr Sr.; one sister-in-law, Lela Carr of Greensboro; two brothers-in-law, Jimmie Carr (Yvonne) of Manassas, VA and Jerry Carr of Greensboro; a special aunt, Lucy Mae Walker, of Burgaw, NC and a host of loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

*"God saw the road was getting long,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed her weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."*

*Her days of toil, her nights of pain,
Her weary hours are past
Her gentle, tired frame has found
Sweet rest at last.*

Our Family

A circle of strength,

Founded on faith . . . Joined in Love

. . . kept by God.

*Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also,
and he praiseth her. Proverbs 31:28*
