

OBITUARY

Mr. Sam Jones departed with life on Saturday, June 30, 1990 at his home in Watha, North Carolina. He was one of two children born to the late Cornelia Jones on May 1, 1884 in Pender County.

He grew up in Pender County and was a long time member of New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Watha, North Carolina.

He was united in holy matrimony to the late Mollie Cleveland Jones. He leaves to rejoice his homecoming a son, Johnnie (Ida) Jones of Detroit, Michigan; four daughters, Annie Ruth Jacobs, Mary Etta Jones, Cora Lee Daniels all of the home, and Mary Ann (William) Bennett of Clinton, North Carolina; ten grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; five great-great grandchildren, and a very caring, devoted and faithful cousin, Ralph Thompson of Burgaw, North Carolina, along with other relatives and friends.

"You bid no one a last farwell,
You said goodbye to none
Your loving heart ceased to beat
Your work on earth was done."
