In Appreciation

We deeply appreciate the many expressions of friendship extended to us during these sad hours. Your concern, love and numerous acts of kindness are most sustaining and shall be remembered. Your Christian compassion will help us to accept the Will of God. We also extend very special thanks to the Zimmer Cancer Center and the Lower Cape Fear Hospice Staff for your love and caring support.

The Obituary

"For I am ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand; I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course; I have kept the faith."

II Timothy 4:6-7

Mae Ruth Walker Calloway was called to rest on Tuesday morning, September 7, 2004. She was born February 19, 1941 in Pender County, North Carolina, to Carrie E. Walker and the late Joel Walker.

At an early age, she joined New Hope Missionary Baptist Church where she attended Sunday School and the BTU in the Missions Department.

Mae received her formal education at C. F. Pope High School, graduating May 1959. Mae was joined in Holy Matrimony in 1965, to Sgt. Lawrence Calloway, Jr., who preceded her in death. She was also preceded by two brothers, Arbelvia Walker and Cleveland Walker.

Mae was a great cook and gardener; she made the best collard greens and butter beans in Pender County. She would give all she had to help someone in need. She never complained even during challenging times.

As she provided love and tender care for her mother, (of the home) since 1981, she also worked for Hermitage House Rest Home as a caring, loving staff member of that facility.

Mae Ruth will be remembered for her love and dedication to her family, her independent spirit and her love of beautiful flowers.

She leaves to cherish her memory and celebrate her life: mother, Carrie E. Walker (of the home); son, Karl Lee Calloway; six sisters, Bertha Bannerman, Watha, NC, Frances B. White (Clifford), Burgaw, NC, Vivian Minatee, Watha, NC, Juliette Goodwyn, Suffolk, VA, Dolores Tyree, Rocky Point, NC, Esther Brinson (James), Decatur, GA; four brothers, Willie D. Walker (Ella), Watha, NC, Reginald Walker, Watha, NC, Ray Walker, Watha, NC, Carl Walker (Janet), Conway, NC; granddaughter, Telishia Jacobs, GA; mother-in-law, Pearl Calloway, Newark, NJ; ten sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
