OBITUARY

"A part of us whose memory we hold dear has crept away and is no longer here. Yet, still she lives, for you cannot forget a treasure who was--and still is yet."

Mrs. Rossie Jacobs Hayes' life of tenderness calmly came to an end Thursday morning, September 6, 1990, at 5:45 a.m. She was born February 14, 1900, in Pender County to the late Jim and Octavis Williams Jacobs.

At an early age, she joined Newkirk Chapel Baptist Church. She later moved to the Piney Wood Road Community of Watha and remained there until her demise. It was during these years that she attended New Hope Missionary Baptist Church. She was a patient and good mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. Her warm smile and friendly manner will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

She leaves loving memories with three daughters, Mrs. Lenora Nicholson (Eddie) of the home, Mrs. Donnie Messick (David) of Watha, N.C., Mrs. Annie Newton of New Haven, Conn.; two sons, Lonnie Jacobs (Daisy) of Suffolk, Va., Gonnie Jacobs of Watha, N.C.; twenty-six grandchildren, twenty-three great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

TRIBUTE

Your's was a useful life; You wrought well while here.
You were generous with your time, As you toiled from year to year.
Many a life you did touch, Always doing your part.
Glad to serve when called upon, with a meek and humble heart.
Your life was dedicated to things noble and true
It was no task for you to work: That, you wanted to do.
You'll ne'er be forgotten though you have passed away.
The deeds you've left behind will live on each day.
We didn't want to give you up; sleep, sleep on, take your rest.
This act of God we dare not question, for he alone, knows best.
