Reflection of Life

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in"

Matthew 11:28-29

On Friday, September 27, 2013, Gloria Washington Wallace made her peaceful transition from earth to eternal life at Plano Presbyterian Hospital in Plano, Texas.

Gloria was born to the late Oliver Washington and Lethia Herring Washington on February 13, 1932 in Burgaw, North Carolina. Married to the late Lonzo Wallace of Lumberton, North Carolina, the two made their home in Yanceyville, North Carolina, where they raised two children, Myron A. Wallace (Helen) of Albuquerque, New Mexico and Aleksei Wallace Reid of Frisco, Texas.

She was an educator for 31 years in Caswell County and served as school principal of Oakwood Elementary School for 22 years before her retirement in 1994. A faithful and proud member of Yanceyville Missionary Baptist Church, Gloria was a past Deaconess, Trustee and Usher Board President.

Gloria loved life and she loved people. She was passionate about helping others and always stressed the need to achieve your personal best. She touched the lives of many in Caswell County and leaves behind a lasting legacy.

Gloria is survived by her loving children, two grandchildren, Margaux Wallace Craig (Richard) and Karla Kirby (Derrick) and three step-grandchildren, Aaron Lopez (Melanie), Stephanie Terchila (Max), and Angela Lopez.
