

Gone Too Soon

I can close my eyes and see you in your little red, white, and blue jumper dress with the white blouse under it. You and your schoolmates would be waiting for the school bus to be bused to Westport, Connecticut to school.

As years went by, we got tired of the big city of Bridgeport, CT and decided to move back home to North Carolina.

As you got older, you decided to take your two children and move to Winston Salem, NC. There is where you decided to further your education.

One day your oldest son Ericke came home from school and brought another "lil" boy named Reino. By this time you were married to Reggie; together ya'll decided to adopt Reino.

A few years later came Shiilah. You wanted to continue your education so you trained the two oldest how to take care of the two youngest children.

Three days before you walked across the stage at A&T University in Greensboro, NC to receive your Master's Degree, your doctor told you that you had to start chemo. You told the doctor to please let you graduate with your class. You worked so hard to achieve your 4.0 average and you deserved it.

That was two and a half years ago, but you remained strong.

I'll always love you and keep you close to my heart!

At the age of 41, my only child, Janice Delilah Jacobs...
