

Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

The Obituary

“I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.”
Philippians 4:13

Bertie Jean Jacobs Boney was born on July 29, 1942, to the late Harvey Leon Jacobs Sr. and Bertie Manuel Jacobs in Wayne County. She departed her life on July 26, 2023, at UNC Health Wayne in Goldsboro, NC.

She attended Wayne County Public Schools and graduated from Dillard High School in 1960. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from Hampton University in 1965 and her Master of Arts in Counseling from Hampton University in 1969. She married Steve Boney on December 21, 1968, and they enjoyed 54 years of love and happiness together. She poured her heart and soul into raising her children instilling in them the values she held dear. As a wife, mother, friend and to her family, Bertie Jean was the epitome of devotion and selflessness. She loved her profession as Counselor spending most of her career in the Wayne County Schools, making a significant impact in her field by inspiring and helping a countless number of children and those around her.

Bertie Jean was strong in her faith and enjoyed studying the Bible and reading and sharing scripture among family and friends every day. Bertie was a consummate researcher of a host of topics, loved challenging her mind with puzzles, enjoyed and loved “everything family” and using family genealogy to find and connect with unknown family.

She was preceded in death by her two brothers David Manuel Sr. of Goldsboro, NC and Charles Jacobs Sr. of Goldsboro, NC.

Bertie Jean is survived by her husband, Steve Boney; her sons, Stephen Victor Boney of Goldsboro, NC and Corey Emil Boney of Washington, DC; two brothers, Harvey (Shirley) Jacobs Jr. and Kennon Jacobs both of Goldsboro, NC; and many nieces and nephews, cousins and friends that she loved dearly.

Acknowledgements

The family would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to the Jacobs, Boney and Silver family, and all who offered prayers, calls, comfort, cards, meals, visits and other ways you have so generously shared in our time of loss.
May God Bless You.
