
O B I T U A R Y

Mrs. Nellie J. Lee, daughter of the late Richard and Julia Boney, was born in Watha, North Carolina on December 15, 1894.

In answer to her Father's call, she departed this life on February 4, 1978.

She attended school in Watha. She was joined in holy matrimony to Howard Herring. To this union, one daughter was born, Mrs. Lela J. Ross, who now resides in Pleasantville, New Jersey.

She accepted Christ at an early age. After moving to Burgaw, North Carolina, she joined Halls Chapel Baptist Church, where her husband served as a deacon.

Nellie came to Atlantic City 43 years ago, after the death of her husband. She was a devoted wife and mother.

Later, she met and married Walter H. Lee. She became a member of Faith Temple Church, and attended as long as her health permitted. Her radiant personality gained for her many friends.

Through her long illness, she kept a cheerful disposition, and a smile on her face. As her physical strength failed, her faith in God grew. The spiritual sessions and communions served in the nursing home brought great joy to her. She always joined in singing and praying as long as her health allowed her to do so.

In her home going, she leaves to mourn their loss, a daughter, Mrs. Lela J. Ross; one sister, Mrs. Blanche Ashbridge; two grandchildren, the Reverend Harold G. Ross, Jr. of Dorchester, Massachusetts, and Mary Jane of Atlantic City, New Jersey; eight great grandchildren; one great great grandson; three aunts, two neices, and many cousins and friends.
