Family Expression

Thanks to such wonderful people as you who through examples of your own consoling love, helped us to vividly and thankfully recall that tender promise of Christ when he said, "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted."

Obituary

*You gave no one a last farewell,
You said, "Good-bye," to none.
The Heavenly gates just opened wide,
And a loving voice said, "Come."
God knew you were tired,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So, He closed your weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."*

The eyes of our loving mother, grandmother, aunt, other relatives and friends, Mrs. Lethia Herring Washington Fredrick, closed her eyes early Tuesday morning, January 6, 1998, in the Danville Regional Medical Center, Danville, Va., after days of confinement. She was the daughter of the late Arthur C. and Annie Walker Herring, born October 13, 1913, in Burgaw, N.C., where she completed her public school education and did her further study elsewhere. At an early age, she joined the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church at Rhyne Cross Road.

Later in life, she ventured to Brooklyn, N.Y., in search of a better livelihood. There, she was a postal clerk at a Brooklyn Post Office. There, she affiliated herself with churches wherever she lived for forty-eight years.

After moving to Yanceyville, N.C., she joined the Yanceyville Missionary Baptist Church where she attended regularly and faithfully, prior to her illness.

She was married to the late Olivers Washington, to this union one daughter was born. Later, She married Clarence Frederick who predeceased her. Two sisters also predeceased her, Lula A. Murphy and Mamie G. Jacobs.

She was a loving, kind and a very pleasant person who always met you with a broad smile and a cheery hello.

Her survivors are: a daughter, Mrs. Gloria W. Wallace (Lonzo) of Yanceyville; foster daughter, Ms. Kate Shirley McGhee of Yanceyville; two grandchildren, Myron D. Wallace of Albrquesville, New Mexico and Mrs. Aleksei W. Reid (Victor) of Charlotte; two grandchildren, Margaux A. Wallace of Chesapeake, Va., and Karla Ashley-Wallace of Pasadena, California; an aunt, Mrs. Carrie Walker of Watha, N.C.; a brother-in-law, Willie Jacobs of Burgaw, N.C.; nieces; nephews; other relatives and friends.

*Not Ours to know the reason why,
Unanswered are our prayers.
But ours to wait for God's own time,
To lift the cross we bear.*
